GENERAL INFORMATION

Attached is information relating to the sponsorship requirements of a continuing education (CE) offering. It is important that you and all individuals connected with the proposed offering be thoroughly familiar with the contents of this packet.

An offering approval is required pursuant to Article 2.5 commencing with Section 10170 of Chapter 3 of Part 1 of Division 4 of the California Business and Professions Code.

The sponsor/applicant is responsible for compliance with all statutory (Business and Professions Code) and Commissioner's Regulation requirements. Continuing education regulations are contained in form RE 312.

Course Fee

A separate application fee is required for each application. The processing fee is non-refundable and must be received before the application will be processed.

$500 Each offering (three hours or more duration)
$350 Each offering (less than three hours duration)

Acceptable payment methods — Cashiers' check, money order, check or credit card

- Make check or money order payable to:
Department of Real Estate
- If paying by credit card, submit a completed Credit Card Payment (RE 909) form.

Mailing Information

Hand deliver or mail the completed forms, attachments and course fee to:

Department of Real Estate, Attn: Education Section
1651 Exposition Blvd, Sacramento, CA 95815
P.O. Box 137009, Sacramento, CA 95813-7009

Questions

If you have any questions regarding original course application requirements or “renewal procedures” for a course about to expire, please contact the Education Section at the above address or by telephone at (916) 576-3366.

Additional information and forms are available on DRE’s Web site www.dre.ca.gov.

WHAT TO SUBMIT

A completed application must be submitted to the Department not less than 90 days before the proposed commencement date of the offering (see Commissioner’s Regulation 3007). Offerings may not be promoted as being DRE-approved until actual approval is issued.

A separate application (RE 315), course fee and related material must be submitted for each offering.

Incomplete applications will delay processing. If your application meets all requirements, a two (2) year certificate of approval will be issued.

All approved offerings are listed on the DRE Web site at www.dre.ca.gov. The sponsor’s name, address, and telephone number, along with the course name, category, number of credit hours, and method of delivery are included on the Web site.

Basic Application Required

CE Offering Approval Application (RE 315)

Note: Minimum length of course is one hour. Credit is granted only in full one-hour increments. Method of presentation may be either live instruction or by correspondence/home study/internet; a separate application and fee are required for each.

Additional Documents Required

- Course Outline - All continuing education offerings require a Course Outline with each topic, subtopic, quizzes (if correspondence course), and final exam annotated with its allocated time in minutes.
- For all live courses, a sponsor shall provide a written course outline that is a narrative outline consisting of not less than three (3) pages per credit-hour. Each page shall contain an average of 200 words.
- Course Materials — Copies of all instructional materials, student materials, textbooks, case studies, sample forms, CDs, DVDs, etc., to be used as a part of the offering.
- Course Completion Certificate — Submit a course completion certificate, in exemplar form as reflected on the sample DRE form RE 302. The certificate must be signed by the verifier.
- General Information Page — Prior to registration for a course, a General Information page must be provided to the student which contains all course requirements included on form RE 308.
- Copyright Authorization — A copyright authorization from the copyright holder specifying the material that may be used and to whom the authorization has been granted is required if copyrighted material will be used in a manner that would be in violation of the copyright laws.

- CE Instructor Certification (RE 335) and supporting qualification documentation for each instructor is required for all course offerings.
- Fictitious Business Name Statement — Sponsor operating under a “doing business as” (“DBA”) name must include a Fictitious Business Name Statement that has been filed with the county recorder in the county where the Sponsor maintains their principal place of business or in Sacramento County if the Sponsor does not maintain a place of business in California.
- Final Exam (Instructor Version) — Submit a copy of the final exam marking it as the “Instructor Version”, which includes an answer key that references where the answers can be found within the course material. DRE requires a minimum of 70% passing score on the final exam.
- Final Exam (Student Version) — Submit a copy of the final exam marking it as the “Student Version”, which is an exact copy of what the student will see.
- Final Exam Instructions — Submit a copy of exam instructions that will be provided to the student explaining all exam requirements.
- Online Course/Final Exams — Upon submitting an application to offer a course and/or final exam via the internet, the sponsor shall provide:
 - 1) A “student” log-in showing any course and final exam information exactly how a student views the material.
 - 2) A “regulator” log-in which allows immediate access to the final exam.
- Incremental Assessments — For correspondence courses, provide copies of the incremental assessments (i.e. case studies, quizzes or other form of exercises) and answers to be utilized after each logical unit of instruction or chapter and a statement detailing the method of providing remediation to the participant after each assessment has been completed.
- Proctored Examinations — Final examinations for a correspondence course may be administered by a proctor designated by the Sponsor who is not related by blood, marriage, domestic partnership, or any other relationship, i.e. future employing broker, to the participant taking the examination which might reasonably influence them from properly administering the exam. Proctor/Monitor Instructions must include a certification statement, with signature field confirming that the proctor complied with all examination rules during the administration of the examination.

Notes: Participants must attend at least 90% of the approved clock hours in order to qualify for continuing education credit. Form RE 349 is a sample attendance form. All offerings shall require completion within one year from the date of registration.

Out-of-State Applicants

If applicant is a non-resident of California, a Consent to Service of Process (RE 304) must be notarized and submitted with the application.

Corporation Requirement

A sponsor that is a corporation, company or partnership shall maintain good legal standing with the California Secretary of State during any term of course approval. Upon initial application and as updates to the entities status occurs, a Sponsor is required to submit the following: A Domestic Corporation shall submit the filed Articles of Incorporation endorsed by the California Secretary of State. A Foreign Corporation shall submit a Certificate of Qualification executed by the California Secretary of State. An out-of-state Company or Partnership (whether Domestic or Foreign) shall submit one of the following documents, issued by the California Secretary of State: Certificate of Qualification, Certificate of Registration, or Certificate of Good Standing.

COURSE RELATED INFORMATION

Advertising and Promotional Material

All advertising and promotional material including Web sites for a continuing education offering shall not include false or misleading statements or representations and must contain only the four-digit identification number assigned by the Department immediately following the words "DRE Sponsor No." The full eight-digit course approval number shall not be included in any advertisement. It is recommended that you submit flyers and marketing material for review with the course application.

Sale of Products and Services

A sponsor, course instructor, or third party vendor is prohibited from marketing, selling or displaying any product or service during a continuing education offering including during breaks between instructional periods. The foregoing shall not prohibit marketing activities conducted outside of the instruction room before or after the course of instruction, or outside of the instruction room during breaks in the course of instruction.

Identification & Attendance Control

Forms of Identification Accepted — A participant shall present one of the following forms of identification immediately before admittance to a live presentation of an offering or, immediately before the administration of the final examination for a correspondence offering.

- (a) A current California drivers license.
- (b) A current identification card described in Section 13000 of the California Vehicle Code.
- (c) Any identification of the participant issued by a governmental agency or a recognized real estate related trade organization within the immediately preceding five years which bears a photograph, signature and identification number of the participant.

Credit Hours (Clock Hours) Information

The offering shall have at least one successive clock hour of instruction which is based on 50 minute increments of actual instruction.

Offerings for Ethics, Agency, Fair Housing, Trust Fund Handling, Risk Management, and Management and Supervision

If you are preparing course material for offerings in the categories of Ethics, Agency, Fair Housing, Trust Fund Handling, Risk Management, or Management and Supervision, the content must meet the Guidelines as set forth in RE 329.

One-Time Offering Information

If a course is a live educational seminar, conference or symposium that will not be offered more than annually in two (2) locations covering subject material dealing with new or changing trends, concepts or innovations in areas relevant to the real estate industry, a cover letter shall be submitted identifying the course as a one-time offering and the first date it is to be offered.

Final Examinations

Final examination rules can be found in Regulation Section 3007.3. Supplemental information can be found on the Department's sample general information page (RE 308).

Correspondence/Internet Course Information

Upon submitting an application to offer a correspondence course via the internet, the sponsor shall provide access to the Department to view and evaluate the proposed course, as offered to the participant, by providing a unique user name and password to review the course as it is delivered online.

Detailed statement(s) addressing the following is required for correspondence course offerings:

1. Method of control to protect the integrity of an exam administered via the internet.
2. Procedures controlling the participant's navigation through the course content to ensure the completion time is appropriate for the number of clock hours for which the course is approved.
3. A method of control that protects the integrity of the exam, ensured by a statement, signed under penalty of perjury, that the participant enrolled is the person completing the course.
4. The final examination is protected by restricting access to one-time, cannot be printable or downloadable, and must time-out after the maximum amount of time authorized for completion has lapsed.

SPONSOR CERTIFICATION

I consent to inspection or monitoring by authorized representatives of the Department of Real Estate (DRE) as outlined below.

Inspection/Monitoring Procedures

The DRE has instituted the following procedures to assist in evaluating the continuing education program:

1. Direct Mail Evaluation: Selected sponsors may be asked to provide lists of individuals who completed a recent offering(s). The Education section may send evaluation questionnaires concerning the quality and perception of the offering.
2. Drop-In Monitoring: Authorized course monitors may attend offerings on a drop-in basis. That is, they will not register and no fees or reimbursements will be involved.
3. Information Reports: Providers may be asked to submit course completion (i.e. completion certificates, attendance forms, exam grades, final exams, proof of payment, etc.) information for verification purposes.
4. Investigative and/or Conformance Monitoring: Authorized participants, may on occasion, attend offerings as a regular attendee or enroll in correspondence courses for the purpose of determining if the offerings are being presented under statute, regulation and requirements as approved.

If requested, course providers will be required to complete an annual report on offerings conducted.

The undersigned sponsor acknowledges receipt and understanding of the procedures outlined above which relate to all continuing education offerings approved under this application.

I agree to submit any material changes to this course application and material at least 90 days prior to proposed use. Approval by DRE is required prior to the presentation of this offering and the nature of any material changes may require a new application and fee upon review. I agree to retain complete records for at least five years from the date of each offering for all participants who enroll in this course.

I certify under penalty of perjury that I have read and understand the information and requirements contained in this application and attached information sheets, and that all statements are true and correct.

PRIVACY INFORMATION:

Section 1798.17 of the Civil Code requires this notice be provided when collecting personal or confidential information from individuals. Each individual has the right to review personal information maintained by this Agency, unless access is exempted by law.
 Department of Real Estate Assistant Commissioner
 1651 Exposition Blvd. Licensing & Administration
 Sacramento, CA 95815 Telephone: 877-373-4542
 General powers of the Commissioner, Sections 10050, 10071, and 10075 of the Business and Professions Code authorizes the maintenance of this information.
 Business and Professions Code Sections 30, 31(e) and 494.5(d) require each real estate licensee to initially provide to the Department of Real Estate his or her social security number which will be furnished to the Franchise Tax Board. The Franchise Tax Board will use your number to establish identification exclusively for tax purposes. These code sections also require that each application for a new license or renewal provides notification on the application, that the Board of Equalization and the Franchise Tax Board will share taxpayer information with the Department of Real Estate, and that failure to pay tax obligations may result in a suspension or denial of a license. The Board of Equalization and Franchise Tax Board require the Department to collect social security numbers and federal taxpayer identification numbers for the purposes of matching the names of the 500 largest tax delinquencies pursuant to Section 7063 or 19195 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. Your social security numbers and federal taxpayer identification number shall not be deemed public records and shall not be open to the public for inspection.

 The Real Estate Law and the Regulations of the Commissioner require applicants to provide the Department with specific information. If all or any part of the required information is not provided, processing may be delayed. In addition, the Commissioner may suspend or revoke a license, or in the case of a license applicant, may deny the issuance for misstatements of facts (including a failure to disclose a material fact) in an application for a license.

 The information requested in this form is primarily used to furnish license status information to the Department's Enforcement Section, and to answer inquiries and give information to the public on license status, mailing and business addresses and actions taken to deny, revoke, restrict or suspend licenses for cause.
 This information may be transferred to real estate licensing agencies in other states, law enforcement agencies (City Police, Sheriff's Departments, District Attorneys, Attorney General, F.B.I.), and any other regulatory agencies (i.e., Department of Business Oversight, Department of Insurance, Department of Consumer Affairs, California Bar Association).
