BROKER EXAM/LICENSE INSTRUCTIONS

RE 436A (Rev. 12/18)

GENERAL INFORMATION

- This combination application may be used for the following purpose:
 - Applying for the real estate broker examination and the real estate broker license at the same time.
- The application must be mailed. You cannot apply using eLicensing. DRE will not accept a faxed RE 436. The RE 436 application must have the original signatures.
- The following fees must be included with your application (fees are subject to change):
 - The current examination fee is $95 and the current license fee is $300. Total due to DRE with this application: $395.
 - Note: Once the Department receives your application, the fees for the examination and license are not refundable or transferable to another application pursuant to B&P Code section 10207.
 - Fee valid for two years — A new application, fee, and current qualifications will be required if you fail to qualify for and pass the examination during that two year period.
- The following must be submitted before your exam can be scheduled and your license can be issued:
 - Proof of completion of the required education and experience. Refer to Instructions to License Applicants handbook for further information.
 - A copy of the completed Live Scan Service Request (RE 237) (refer to Fingerprint Information).

Please read all examination and license information/instructions before completing and submitting this application; type or print in ink.

GENERAL APPLICANT INFORMATION

- You can only be scheduled for one broker examination date at a time.
- Name — To avoid delays in the processing of your exam/license application(s) you must provide your legal name. Further, the name listed as your legal name must appear on all accompanying documents, including Completion Certificates. Provide documentation (i.e., copy of your drivers license, marriage certificate, etc.) for any name change or discrepancy between your legal name and the name you used in applying for the examination or the name on your transcripts or certificates.
- Mailing address — Use of a real estate school/business mailing address (item #5A-D) may cause a delay in mail delivery. If you are not a resident of California, submit a notarized Consent to Service (RE 234) form. You may change your mailing address online using eLicensing at www.dre.ca.gov or by submitting a Broker Examination Change Application (RE 415B).
 - Business and license mailing addresses are public information and as such are posted on the Internet and available from DRE via telephone and written requests. Please consider this when identifying such addresses.

- The examination is qualifying in nature, therefore if you pass, an actual score will not be released.

EXAMINATION SCHEDULING INFORMATION

- Schedules and examination locations are subject to change.
- You must have an active exam application on file before you can schedule yourself on eLicensing.
- Broker examinations are usually given: Weekdays as needed in Fresno, the Los Angeles vicinity, Oakland, Sacramento, and San Diego. At www.dre.ca.gov you can view a calendar of examination dates and locations currently being scheduled. Since DRE allows reschedule requests online, by phone and through the mail, examination dates fill quickly and a particular date may not be available; therefore, requests cannot be guaranteed.
- Once you are qualified, you can either schedule yourself for examination or DRE will schedule you. If you indicate on the application (item #14) that you want to schedule yourself for the examination, an email will be sent to you advising you that you are qualified and that you may use eLicensing to schedule your examination.
- If you do not provide a date in item #16, and do not request self-scheduling (item #14), you will be scheduled for the earliest available date in the area chosen.
- Exam date notification — Processing timeframes are listed at www.dre.ca.gov. These timeframes estimate when the processing of your application should be completed.
- If you have not received an examination confirmation notice within the timeframes listed on our Web site, you can obtain your scheduled date through eLicensing at www.dre.ca.gov.
- If you have not yet been assigned an exam date or received a deficiency letter and your application was submitted prior to the processing timeframes, check with your bank or credit card company to assure that DRE has processed your fee.
- Applicants with limitations requiring reasonable accommodations must submit a Reasonable Accommodation Request for Examination (RE 413) as well as the required documentation as noted on the RE 413, with this exam application. Do not attempt to schedule a reasonable accommodation via our Web site, as eLicensing does not provide such a service. Compliance with reasonable accommodation requests may be limited by scheduling constraints.
- Use eLicensing for expedited processing to reschedule an examination, review your examination results and records, request a duplicate schedule or result notice, and change your examination mailing address.
All exam scheduling transactions done by the examinee in eLicensing are final.

EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

Successful completion of the following eight college-level courses is required: Legal Aspects of Real Estate, Real Estate Appraisal, Real Estate Economics or General Accounting*, Real Estate Finance, Real Estate Practice; and three courses from the following electives: Advanced Legal Aspects of Real Estate, Advanced Real Estate Appraisal, Advanced Real Estate Finance, Business Law, Common Interest Developments, Computer Applications in Real Estate, Escrows, Mortgage Loan Brokering and Lending, Property Management, Real Estate Office Administration, Real Estate Principles.

*If both Real Estate Economics and General Accounting are completed, only two courses from the electives are required.

Each college-level course must be at least three semester units or four quarter units. Courses must be completed at an institution of higher learning accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges or by a comparable regional accrediting agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education, or by a private real estate school, which has courses approved by the California Real Estate Commissioner. Courses completed through foreign institutions of higher learning must be evaluated by a foreign credentials evaluation service approved by DRE. See Examination Applicant Foreign Education Information (RE 223).

Copies of official transcripts are generally acceptable evidence of completed courses. Courses submitted as equivalent to the required courses must be accompanied by an official course or catalog description in order to be evaluated for equivalency.

EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS

A minimum of two years full-time licensed salesperson experience within the last five years or the equivalent is required. The following are acceptable methods of documenting the experience requirement for the broker examination.

Verification of licensed sales experience

Holding a salesperson license for two years does not necessarily qualify an applicant for a broker license. The applicant must document employment as a licensed salesperson on a full-time basis (or part-time for the equivalent of two years full-time) with certifications from current or former employing brokers. These certifications must be made using the Employment Verification (RE 226) form. Letters of recommendation will not suffice. This experience must be gained within five years preceding the date of the submitted broker examination application.

Verification of equivalent experience

A claim of equivalent experience, in lieu of the two years of sales experience, may be based on any combination of salesperson experience and equivalent experience, which, considered as a whole, would satisfy the intent of the law.

An applicant who has not been active as a licensed real estate salesperson may be eligible for the broker examination, provided the Equivalent Experience Verification (RE 227) form(s) showing acceptable real estate-related experience is submitted. The RE 227 form(s) must be completed in full and must have two verifying signatures on each form.

When submitting the RE 227 form(s), it is important that an applicant provide sufficient detailed descriptions of the activities to enable DRE to perform an evaluation. DRE may conduct further inquiry when evaluating equivalent experience, including requesting additional information from the applicant, the employer(s), or the certifiers.

Regardless of the experience, the eight college-level courses required for a broker's license must be completed and cannot be waived based on equivalent experience.

Acceptable Kinds of Equivalent Experience

An applicant may qualify with two years full-time experience, in any of the following areas:

1. Experience as an escrow or title officer or as a loan officer in a capacity directly related to the financing or conveying of real property.
2. Experience as a subdivider, or speculative builder, during which time the applicant performed comprehensive duties relating to the purchase, finance, development, and sale or lease of real property. General contracting experience does not satisfy the intent of the law.
3. Experience as a real property appraiser.
4. Experience as a licensed real estate professional in another state or country.

The above-referenced patterns are designed to assist the applicant in understanding the general types of equivalent experience which can be used to qualify for the broker examination. Other types of real estate-related experience will be considered, provided that it satisfies the intent of the law. It should be noted, however, that claims for equivalency by unlicensed persons for activities which require a real estate license will not be considered.

Active military and veteran applicants can apply their military experience and training, as it relates to real estate-related activities and provided that it satisfies the intent of the law, towards licensure requirements.

NOTE: Care in preparing the claim of qualification and presentation of adequate supporting documents including letters, certifications, corporation information, tax forms and proof of real property ownership will facilitate the review of an application. Do not have verifiers send individual letters separate from the application submissions. Be accurate as to employment and transaction dates, etc., as incompleteness or inaccuracies will result in delays and additional correspondence. All attachments must be signed by the applicant and the certifiers.

Education in Lieu of Experience

An applicant with a degree from an accredited four-year college or university which included a major or minor in real estate may be exempt from the two-year salesperson experience requirement. This may be verified by submitting a copy of the transcript showing the degree earned. Degrees and certificates earned from two-year institutions do not qualify. Degrees earned through foreign institutions of higher learning must be evaluated by a foreign credentials evaluation service approved by DRE. See Examination Applicant Foreign Education Information (RE 223) for further information.

Evaluation of experience

All qualification requirements must be met before an applicant can be scheduled for the broker examination. Evaluations of claimed experience or education cannot be conducted with applicants in person at any DRE office or over the telephone. If an applicant wants an evaluation of college courses, degree or experience they must submit a completed application and fee.

MEMBERS OF THE CALIFORNIA STATE BAR

Members of the California State Bar are statutorily exempt from the college-level course requirements. Evidence of admission to practice Law in California must be furnished, such as a photocopy of both sides of a California State Bar membership card. However, members of the California State Bar would still need to demonstrate that they have satisfied the two years full-time licensed salesperson experience requirement or have at least two years real estate related experience while practicing law in California. Members of the State Bar of California using equivalent experience should submit a RE 227 form outlining this experience along with their application.

CURRENTLY OR PREVIOUSLY LICENSED?

If you currently have a real estate broker (or broker-officer) license in California, or if your license expired less than two years ago, you are not eligible to take an examination for that type of license
Note: A broker-officer license which has not been expired for more than two years will protect your right to obtain an individual broker license.

GENERAL LICENSE INFORMATION

- Application deficiencies such as failure to submit the proper fee, education or experience requirements, or completed Live Scan Service Request (RE 237) will delay the processing.
- You may check to verify that your license has been issued by referencing the license status look up at www.dre.ca.gov. Current processing timeframes for properly completed applications are posted on the Web site.
- Forms referenced in these instructions can be obtained from the DRE Web site.
- Once you pass the exam and are issued the license, you may use eLicensing to retrieve a copy of your license certificate. DRE no longer mails out license certificates.

If Item #20 Is Yes, Then Complete Items #21-24

Main office address — Enter your primary business location (a California address) at the time your license will be issued. If a street address is unavailable, indicate the physical location; use the nearest intersection and the distance to it. A post office box number alone is not acceptable. If you are not a California resident and you do not maintain a California business address, leave items 21-24 blank and also submit an Out-of-State Broker Acknowledgment (RE 235) form. Your main office address is public information and as such is posted on the Internet and available from DRE via telephone and written request.

Using a fictitious business name/doing business as (DBA) — Enter the name exactly as it appears on the Fictitious Business Name Statement (FBNS) as filed with the County Clerk in the county where your main office is located. Submit a copy of the FBNS showing the “filed stamp” from the County Clerk’s office.

- Prior to filing your fictitious business name statement with the county, you may wish to contact a local DRE district office, or check our Web site to determine if the name is already in use by another broker.

- Proof of Publication is not acceptable.
- Do not list your employing broker’s DBA if you will be working as a broker-associate.
- Legible photocopies of the FBNS are acceptable.
- An individual broker may not be issued a license with a DBA which implies the existence of a corporation, is otherwise misleading, or which would constitute false advertising. Refer to Commissioner’s Regulation 2731.

Background Information

- ALL background information questions (items 26-31) must be answered and a full explanation must be provided if any of the questions are answered “yes.” Insufficient or no explanations will delay the processing of your license.
- Read the Broker Certification, and sign and date on items #35 and #36.

FINGERPRINT INFORMATION

Completion & Submission of RE 237

One set of classifiable electronic fingerprints is required from every real estate license applicant. Fingerprints must be submitted through the California Department of Justice (DOJ) Live Scan Program. A Live Scan Service Request (RE 237) may be obtained online at www.dre.ca.gov.

After you have your fingerprints taken by the live scan service provider, either submit a completed copy of RE 237 with this application or, if you choose to get your fingerprints taken at a later date, submit a completed copy of RE 237 to the Department of Real Estate, P.O. Box 137002, Sacramento, CA 95813, Attn: Fingerprint Desk. Your license will not be issued until a report from the Department of Justice is received stating that there is no criminal history, or disclosing the existence of criminal history information. If prior criminal information is disclosed in the report, further background inquiry may be required before your license is issued.

Fingerprint services (Contact the facility for fees/hours)

Many California law enforcement agencies and other private providers provide electronic fingerprint services. You may obtain a complete list of fingerprint service providers through www.dre.ca.gov or by visiting the Department of Justice's Web site at www.ag.ca.gov. Please note that the hours of operation for each provider may vary and an appointment may be required.

Out-of-state applicants

Out of state residents either need to make arrangements to get their fingerprints taken at a live scan service provider in California or get fingerprinted out of state using the FBI Applicant Fingerprint Card (FD-258 Rev. 5/99). A fingerprint card can be obtained by contacting Licensing Section at 877-373-4542. It should be taken to a local law enforcement agency for completion and submitted directly to DRE with the completed exam/license application, exam/license application fee, and $49 fingerprint processing fee.

NOTICE ABOUT THE SAFE ACT

All DRE licensees who conduct residential mortgage loan activities, as outlined in the federal SAFE Act, must obtain a mortgage loan originator (MLO) license endorsement in order to perform these types of activities (SB 36, Calderon, Chapter 160, Statutes of 2009).

MLO license endorsement applications must be submitted through the Nationwide Multistate Licensing System & Registry (NMLS) and applicants must successfully complete the National test with uniform State content, submit a MLO license endorsement filing through NMLS and pay required license endorsement fees, submit fingerprints to NMLS, satisfy the 20 hour pre-license education requirement, and submit authorization for NMLS to obtain a credit report. All MLO license endorsements expire on December 31st and must be renewed annually by submitting a renewal filing through NMLS along with the appropriate fees, and evidence of completion of 8 hours of continuing education, as specified. Detailed information regarding obtaining a MLO license endorsement can be found on our Web site.

RE 866 Filing Requirements

All DRE licensees must report to the Department of Real Estate if they make, arrange, or service loans secured by residential property, 1 to 4 units, under the authority of the Real Estate Law. The report must be made within 30 days of commencing such activity and must be completed online using Form RE 866 – Mortgage Loan Activity Notification. Penalty fees can apply for failure to submit this required notification.

SUBVERSION OF EXAMINATION

It is a misdemeanor for any person to subvert or attempt to subvert any licensing examination. Sections 123, 123.5, 496, 10153.01 and 10153.1 of the Business and Professions (B&P) Code relate to test security and provide that DRE may deny, suspend, restrict or revoke the license of an applicant or licensee who subverts or attempts to subvert a licensing examination.

In addition to any other penalties, a person found guilty of violating Section 123 of the B&P Code shall be liable for the actual damages sustained by the agency administering the examination not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and the costs of litigation.

APPLICANT INSTRUCTIONS

Fingerprint Requirement

One set of classifiable electronic fingerprints is required from every real estate license applicant. The fingerprint process is completed by a live scan service provider as noted below.

One set of classifiable electronic fingerprints is also required by licensees who hold a restricted license and who are petitioning for removal of restrictions or by individuals who have had their real estate license revoked and are petitioning for reinstatement of their license.

Applicants have the option of getting their fingerprints taken either after passing their examination or after they have submitted their examination application. However, fingerprint processing fees are not refunded if an applicant fails to pass the examination.

Out of state residents either need to make arrangements to get their fingerprints taken at a live scan service provider in California or get fingerprinted out of state using the FBI Applicant Fingerprint Card (FD-258 Rev. 5/99). A fingerprint card will be provided to all out of state applicants with the original license application. It should be taken to a local law enforcement agency for completion and submitted directly to DRE with the completed license application, license application fee, and $49.00 fingerprint card processing fee. Applicants who wish to get their fingerprints taken out of state after submitting their examination application, but before passing their examination, may request a blank fingerprint card by contacting the Licensing Section at 1-877-373-4542.

Fingerprint Services (Contact the facility for fees & hours.)

Many California law enforcement agencies and other private providers provide electronic fingerprint services. You may obtain a complete list by checking the Web site of the California Department of Justice at <http://ag.ca.gov/fingerprints/publications/contact.php>. Please note that the hours of operation for each provider may vary and an appointment may be required.

Avoid Potential Denial of Your License Application

A background investigation is conducted on all license applicants and disclosure of a conviction or failure to disclose a conviction may result in a recommendation of denial of a license. If your application for a license is denied, your license fees will not be refunded.

Denial of a license may be recommended for the following reasons:

- Failure to disclose pending criminal charges, criminal convictions, or disciplinary action taken against a business, professional license, certificate or permit by an agency in California, another state or by the Federal government.
- Conviction of a felony and the felony is substantially related to the qualifications, functions and duties of a real estate licensee.
- Conviction of a misdemeanor and the conviction is substantially related to the qualifications, functions and duties of a real estate licensee.
- Administrative action taken against a business, professional license, certificate or permit by an agency in California, another state or by the Federal government.
- A determination that the facts of a particular case warrant denial, such as the nature or severity of the act or the presence of aggravating factors.

The most common disqualifying convictions are listed below; however this list is not all-inclusive:

- | | |
|---|--|
| ➤ Assault with intent to commit rape | ➤ Murder |
| ➤ Bribing public officer or employee | ➤ Obtaining money by false pretenses |
| ➤ Burglary | ➤ Perjury |
| ➤ Conviction that requires registration pursuant to Section 290 of the Penal Code | ➤ Sexually related conduct affecting a person who is an observer or non consenting participant |
| ➤ Criminal conspiracy | ➤ Perjury |
| ➤ Embezzlement | ➤ Petty theft |
| ➤ Extortion | ➤ Possession of drugs for sale or transport |
| ➤ Filing a false police or fire report | ➤ Soliciting a lewd act from a minor or non consenting adult. |
| ➤ Forgery | ➤ Tax evasion |
| ➤ Fraud | |
| ➤ Grand theft | |

 Definition of “Conviction”

“Convicted” includes a verdict of guilty by judge or jury, a plea of guilty, a plea of nolo contendere (i.e., “no contest”), or a forfeiture of bail in the courts (including military courts) of any state, commonwealth, possession or country. All convictions must be disclosed, no matter how long ago they occurred, and even if the plea or verdict was set aside, the conviction dismissed or expunged under Penal Code Section 1203.4, or you have been pardoned. Convictions occurring while you were a minor (under 18 years of age) must be disclosed unless the record of the conviction has been sealed under Section 1203.45 of the California Penal Code or Section 781 of the California Welfare and Institutions Code.

Read the questions on the application carefully and answer truthfully and completely. Failure to disclose disciplinary actions, criminal convictions or pending criminal charges which occurred in your entire history may be considered an attempt to obtain a license by fraud or misrepresentation. Irrespective of any advice that may be received from others, the license applicant alone is responsible for disclosing accurate and complete information.
