SAN DIEGO - The California Office of Real Estate Appraisers (OREA) and The California Department of Real Estate (DRE), in collaboration with the California Community College Real Estate Education Center offers appraisers, real estate professionals, educators, and the public an opportunity to participate in the San Diego Real Estate Educators' Conference on Friday, February 25, 2011 beginning at 8:00 am.

OREA Director Bob Clark will be the featured morning presenter at the conference, addressing current trends in California real estate appraisal licensing, enforcement issues, the impact of new and proposed legislation on the appraisal profession, and the regulation of appraisal management companies. Mr. Clark is scheduled to present at 10 a.m.

Providing DRE updates at the conference will be Shelly Harkins, Manager of Education and Research. Ms. Harkins will discuss current licensing statistics, recent revisions to continuing education offering regulations and a look ahead at proposed regulations. Additional DRE informative materials will be provided in the conference packets.

Individuals interested in this event may participate without charge via live online video streaming. A computer, internet browser, and high-speed internet connection are the only technologies required. Online participants may listen, view, and participate live with online questions.
