This report expires on the date shown above. All material changes must be reported to the Department of Real Estate. (Refer to Section 11012 of the B&P Code; and Chapter 6, Title 10 of the California Administrative Code, Regulation 2800.) Some material changes may require amendment of the Public Report; which Amendment must be obtained and used in lieu of this report.

Section 12920 of the California Government Code provides that the practice of discrimination in housing accommodations on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, ancestry, familial status, source of income, disability, veteran or military status, or genetic information is against public policy.

Under Section 125.6 of the B&P Code, California real estate licensees are subject to disciplinary action by the Real Estate Commissioner if they discriminate or make any distinction or restriction in negotiating the sale or lease of real property because of the race, color, sex, religion, ancestry, national origin, disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, sexual orientation, or physical handicap of the client. If any prospective buyer or lessee believes that a licensee is guilty of such conduct, (s)he should contact the Department of Real Estate.
